Coroner's Verdict of Suicide Man Who Forfeited Bond Jury Says El Paso Plant G. A. R. and Confederate Veterans to Be Guests of Herald Tonight.

The first half of the great picture exhibits the salient events of the civil war, which came to a close at Appomiation last fifty years ago. Lincoln's uall for troops, Sherman's march, the Battle of Petersburg, Lees surrender to Grant and the awful tragedy at Ford's theater live before the spectur of the Griffith drams.

In the second half the south's "second uprising," this time against the curpeting regime is shown in a thrilling story of reconstruction days. The romance of the "little Confederate colone." Ben Cameron, with the northerner Elsie Storeman, and that of the Unionist captain Phil Stoneman with Margaret Cameron, the South Carolina lassie, maintain two threads of continuous love-interest through the story. The fun and frolic of plantation days, as well as the heartache and pathon of the stricken south are shown. The great out-of-doors is Mr. Griffith's apecial field, Great battle scenes and the rides of the clan are staged with thoganila of participants. There are 5000 scenes in the spectacle, and (It is estimated) no less than 200,000 interesting historical details.
